BENEFITS BY DISABILITY RATING

What your VA rating can unlock

Your VA disability rating affects more than your monthly payment. This chart shows other federal benefits you may qualify for at each rating, based on VA's Benefit Eligibility Matrix. Each benefit has its own eligibility rules.

BY RATING

Rating	Benefits you may qualify for
0 percent (not paid)	10-point Veteran preference in federal hiring; no-cost health care and prescriptions for service-connected conditions (if income limits are met); travel allowance for VA appointments; commissary, exchange, and MWR privileges.
0 percent (paid)	Everything above, plus the VA home loan funding fee waiver and the burial and plot allowance. In some cases, several separate 0 percent conditions are paid at the 10 percent rate.
10 percent	No-cost VA health care;* prescriptions for service-connected conditions (others may have copays); travel allowance for service-connected care; home loan funding fee waiver; 10-point federal hiring preference; Veteran Readiness and Employment (with a serious employment handicap); burial and plot allowance; commissary, exchange, and MWR privileges.
20 percent	Everything at 10 percent, with Veteran Readiness and Employment available without the serious employment handicap requirement.
30 to 40 percent	Everything above, plus federal direct hire authority and added compensation for eligible dependents, which may include aid and attendance for an eligible spouse.
50 percent	No-cost health care and prescriptions; travel allowance; home loan funding fee waiver; 10-point hiring preference; direct hire authority; Veteran Readiness and Employment; added compensation for dependents; concurrent receipt of military retired pay; burial and plot allowance; commissary, exchange, and MWR privileges.
60 to 90 percent	Everything at 50 percent, plus Individual Unemployability if your service-connected conditions keep you from working. If that condition is permanent: Dependents' Educational Assistance, special restorative training, and CHAMPVA health coverage for family. Dental care if rated unemployable.
100 percent	No-cost health care, prescriptions, and dental care; travel allowance; home loan funding fee waiver; 10-point hiring preference; direct hire authority; Veteran Readiness and Employment; added compensation for dependents; concurrent receipt of military retired pay; Dependents' Educational Assistance and CHAMPVA (if permanent); special restorative training; burial and plot allowance; Uniformed Services ID card.
100 percent plus a separate 60 percent	Statutory housebound compensation, in addition to everything at 100 percent.

*Urgent care copays may apply.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

- Loss of use or anatomical loss from service-connected conditions may qualify you for Special Monthly Compensation, adapted housing grants, Veterans' Mortgage Life Insurance, and an automobile grant or adaptive equipment.
- Temporary 100 percent payments may apply while you recover from surgery or a cast for a service-connected condition, during a hospital stay of more than 21 days, or after separating with an unstable disability.

HOW TO USE THIS CHART

- Some benefits depend on income, employment, or whether your rating is permanent. Confirm the details on VA.gov or with an accredited representative.
